Karnataka Cabinet on Thursday decided to withdraw criminal cases relating to violation of COVID-19 guidelines by state Congress and its leaders including, now Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and Deputy Chief Minister D K Shivakumar during the 'Mekedatu padayatra' organised by the party in 2022. The Congress, then in opposition, had organised the padayatra (foot march), demanding implementation of the Mekedatu project, across the Cauvery river, despite COVID restrictions during the time. "It has been decided to withdraw nine criminal cases booked in various police stations of the state. It is to do with only Mekedatu agitation, violating COVID rules and Section 144 and others," Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister H K Patil said.

Flying kiss row: Smriti faces Oppn heat

THE row erupts a day after Irani expressed outrage over Rahul Gandhi blowing a flying kiss in the Lok Sabha, calling him misogynist and saying the House had never witnessed such an "indecent act"

Maliwal slams Irani for 'lack of outrage'

CW chief Swati Maliwal slammed Union minister Smriti Irani for her lack of outrage over women being paraded naked in Manipur or over the release of Bilkis Bano's rapists on Independence Day. Delhi Commission for Women (DCW) chief Maliwal said Irani "does not get angry" against BJP MP Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh who has been accused of sexual harassment or against repeated paroles received by Dera Sacha Sauda chief Gurmeet Ram Rahim Singh, who is serving a 20-year jail term for rape and murder.

"Union WCD minister is very angry. But, I cannot understand where that anger goes away when, just two rows (in Parliament) behind her, a person called Brij Bhushan Singh sits," Maliwal said in a nearly 2-minute-long video posted on X, formerly Twitter.

The DCW chief said the minister doesn't get infuriated about Singh, who has been accused of sexually harassing many Olympian wrestlers, "calling them to rooms, putting his hands around their waists and chests".

Maliwal said the Union WCD minister "doesn't get angry when women are paraded naked in Manipur, molested, and

'Where are your priorities, madam'

TMC MP Mahua Moitra on Thursday took a swipe at Union Women and Child Development Minister Smriti Irani, saying that not one word was heard from her when a BJP MP was accused of harass ment and molestation by wrestlers and now "she is talking about some flying kiss". Speaking with reporters outside Parliament, Moitra said, "When a BJP MP was accused of harassment and molestation by our champion wrestlers, we did not hear one word out of the women and child development minister and now she is talking about some flying kiss, where are your priorities, madam." Her remarks were in reference to the allegations against BJP MP Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh of sexual harassment of

NEW DELHI: Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Thursday said India is in a unique position of being optimistic and positive about its future growth when the global economy is struggling, and asserted the Modi government has transformed governance by delivering on its promises. Speaking during the debate on the no-confidence motion in Lok Sabha, she said developed countries such as the US and the UK, and the Euro zone are facing challenging times, while big economies such as China are also facing their own issues related to consumer demand and wage

Taking a jibe at the 'Garibi Hatao' slogan of the Congress government headed by Indira Gandhi, she asked whether poverty was actually removed.

"PM (Narendra) Modi has changed this completely. There is a transformation in our governance," she said and asserted words such as "Milega" (you will get) have been replaced by people saying "Mil Gaya" (we have got it).

"We believe in empowering all and appeasement of none," she said.

"In 2022, there was only three per cent growth in the global economy. The World Bank has said in 2023, it will decline to 2.1 per cent," she said. "In this background, look at the Indian economy... In 2013, Morgan Stanley called India a fragile economy. Same Morgan Stanley has upgraded spite Covid," she said.

Joshimath-like disasters: Par panel

to Balaji

The property located in Karur was unearthed by the agency during searches undertaken on Wednesday and it, along with an underconstruction bungalow being built on the land, has now been placed under a freeze order in accordance with the section 17(1A) of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA).

This particular section of the anti-money laundering law speaks about powers granted to an investigator to freeze a record or property where it is not practical to seize such a record or property.

The ED said in a statement that the land is located at Salem bypass road in Karur district and it was "acquired" by P Lakshmi, mother-in-law of Senthil Balaji's brother RV Ashok Balaji, and it was later "gifted" by Lakshmi to her daughter and Ashok Balaji's wife, Nirmala.

The federal agency said its investigation found that 'a substantial parcel of land measuring 2.49 acre located at Salem bypass road, Andankoil, Karur was acquired by P Lakshmi from one Anuradha Ramesh for a mere Rs 10 lakh, as against the land's true value amounting to more than

MNF backs no-confidence motion

AIZWAL: C. Lalrosanga, the lone Mizo National Front (MNF) member in the Lok Sabha, on Thursday said the party was "extremely unhappy" with the way the BJP governments both at the Centre and in Manipur dealt with the ethnic violence, saying he supports the opposition's no-confidence motion against the National Democratic Alliance (NDA).

Lalrosanga's remarks came as the MNF, one of NDA's oldest allies, has decided to support the noconfidence motion sponsored by the opposition INDIA bloc being discussed in the Lok Sabha, over the "wrong handling of Manipur crisis". Deeply upset over the Manipur issue, Lalrosanga and K. Vanlalvena, the lone MNF Rajya Sabha member from Mizoram, had skipped the recent NDA MPs meeting chaired by Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi.

Flying kiss row: Smriti faces Oppn heat

THE row erupts a day after Irani expressed outrage over Rahul Gandhi blowing a flying kiss in the Lok Sabha, calling him misogynist and saying the House had never witnessed such an "indecent act"

Maliwal slams Irani for 'lack of outrage'

CW chief Swati Maliwal slammed Union minister Smriti Irani for her lack of outrage over women being paraded naked in Manipur or over the release of Bilkis Bano's rapists on Independence Day. Delhi Commission for Women (DCW) chief Maliwal said Irani "does not get angry" against BJP MP Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh who has been accused of sexual harassment or against repeated paroles received by Dera Sacha Sauda chief Gurmeet Ram Rahim Singh, who is serving a 20-year jail term for rape and murder.

"Union WCD minister is very angry. But, I cannot understand where that anger goes away when, just two rows (in Parliament) behind her, a person called Brij Bhushan Singh sits," Maliwal said in a nearly 2-minute-long video posted on X, formerly Twitter.

The DCW chief said the minister doesn't get infuriated about Singh, who has been accused of sexually harassing many Olympian wrestlers, "calling them to rooms, putting his hands around their waists and chests".

Maliwal said the Union WCD minister "doesn't get angry when women are paraded naked in Manipur, molested, and

'Where are your priorities, madam'

TMC MP Mahua Moitra on Thursday took a swipe at Union Women and Child Development Minister Smriti Irani, saying that not one word was heard from her when a BJP MP was accused of harass ment and molestation by wrestlers and now "she is talking about some flying kiss". Speaking with reporters outside Parliament, Moitra said, "When a BJP MP was accused of harassment and molestation by our champion wrestlers, we did not hear one word out of the women and child development minister and now she is talking about some flying kiss, where are your priorities, madam." Her remarks were in reference to the allegations against BJP MP Brij Bhushan Sharan Singh of sexual harassment of

PA wasted a decade because of corruption and cronyism. Today, every crisis has been changed into an opportunity. We are living in high growth, low inflation, while it was the other way during UPA -NIRMALA SITHARAMAN, FINANCE MINISTER

NEW DELHI: Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Thursday said India is in a unique position of being optimistic and positive about its future growth when the global economy is struggling, and asserted the Modi government has transformed governance by delivering on its promises. Speaking during the debate on the no-confidence motion in Lok Sabha, she said developed countries such as the US and the UK, and the Euro zone are facing challenging times, while big economies such as China are also facing their own issues related to consumer demand and wage

Taking a jibe at the 'Garibi Hatao' slogan of the Congress government headed by Indira Gandhi, she asked whether poverty was actually removed.

"PM (Narendra) Modi has changed this completely. There is a transformation in our governance," she said and asserted words such as "Milega" (you will get) have been replaced by people saying "Mil Gaya" (we have got it).

"We believe in empowering all and appeasement of none," she said.

"In 2022, there was only three per cent growth in the global economy. The World Bank has said in 2023, it will decline to 2.1 per cent," she said. "In this background, look at the Indian economy... In 2013, Morgan Stanley called India a fragile economy. Same Morgan Stanley has upgraded India, just in nine years, the fragile economy came out because of our government's policy. There was improvement despite Covid," she said.

MNF backs no-confidence motion

AIZWAL: C. Lalrosanga, the lone Mizo National Front (MNF) member in the Lok Sabha, on Thursday said the party was "extremely unhappy" with the way the BJP governments both at the Centre and in Manipur dealt with the ethnic violence, saying he supports the opposition's no-confidence motion against the National Democratic Alliance (NDA).

Lalrosanga's remarks came as the MNF, one of NDA's oldest allies, has decided to support the noconfidence motion sponsored by the opposition INDIA bloc being discussed in the Lok Sabha, over the "wrong handling of Manipur crisis". Deeply upset over the Manipur issue, Lalrosanga and K. Vanlalvena, the lone MNF Rajya Sabha member from Mizoram, had skipped the recent NDA MPs meeting chaired by Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi.

Urgent steps needed to avert Joshimath-like disasters: Par panel

DELHI: The tremendous increase in tourism and illegal construction of hotels and resorts is straining natural resources in the Himalayan region and the government should take urgent action to avert Joshimath-like disasters, a parliamentary panel said on Thursday.

In its 135th report tabled in the Rajya Sabha, the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Science and Technology, Environment and Climate Change also stressed the need for a thorough examination of the illegal structures in the ecologically fragile region in coordination with local authorities and strict action against illegal construction to prevent tragedies akin to the ones experienced in Kedarnath in 2013 and Joshimath earlier this year. committee also

MONEY LAUNDERING

Rs 30 cr land linked to Balaji

A 2.49 acre land valued at more than Rs 30 crore belonging to the sister-in-law of Tamil Nadu minister V Senthil Balaji has been frozen as part of an ongoing money laundering investigation against him, the Enforcement Directorate (ED) said on Thurs-

The property located in Karur was unearthed by the agency during searches undertaken on Wednesday and it, along with an underconstruction bungalow being built on the land, has now been placed under a freeze order in accordance with the section 17(1A) of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA).

This particular section of the anti-money laundering law speaks about powers granted to an investigator to freeze a record or property where it is not practical to seize such a record or property.

The ED said in a statement that the land is located at Salem bypass road in Karur district and it was "acquired" by P Lakshmi, mother-in-law of Senthil Balaji's brother RV Ashok Balaji, and it was later "gifted" by Lakshmi to her daughter and Ashok Balaji's wife, Nirmala.

The federal agency said its investigation found that 'a substantial parcel of land measuring 2.49 acre located at Salem bypass road, Andankoil, Karur was acquired by P Lakshmi from one Anuradha Ramesh for a mere Rs 10 lakh, as against the land's true value amounting to more than
