Russia steps up assaults on Pokrovsk Agencies

KYIV

Russian forces stepped up their attacks on the Pokrovsk front in eastern Ukraine over the last 24 hours, the Ukrainian military said on Tuesday, reporting the largest number of battles in the area in a single day in a week.

The increase in fighting after Ukraine comes mounted a surprise crossborder incursion into Russia's Kursk region in what some military analysts see as an attempt to divert Russian forces from their main offensives in the east. Russian forces have been trying to advance towards the Kviv-held logistics hub of Pokrovsk for months, inching forward incrementally and taking advantage of greater troop numbers.

In a daily readout, the Ukrainian military's General Staff said there had been 52 battles on the Pokrovsk front, a visible increase from figures of between 28 and 42 per day that have been reported over the past week.

Ukraine last reported more than that in the first days of August, before Kyiv's forces launched their crossborder attack into the Kursk region

The Russian attacks in the last 24 hours were focused around the villages of Hrodivka and Zhelanne, located about 20 km from Pokrovsk, the General Staff said.

The battles on the Pokrovsk front accounted for more than a third of all the battles reported along a 1,000-kilometer front, according to the Ukrainian readout that was provided.

Elon Musk, Donald Trump get chummy as they chat on X

FPJ News Service NEW YORK

What was supposed to be Donald J Trump's triumphant return to a social-media platform central to his presidency was marred by glitches on Monday night, when a livestreamed conversation on X between Trump and its owner. Elon Musk, was delayed by 40 minutes due to technical issues. But once their chat began, Musk's and Trump's newly developed camaraderie was on clear display. Musk insisted that it was a conversation and not an adversarial interview as he wanted to help "open-minded, independent voters" simply "catch a vibe"

"I want to emphasize it's a conversation, and it's really intended to just get a feel for what Donald Trump is just like in a conversation," Musk said The conversation in which Musk asked friendly questions on subjects such as immigration and inflation. Musk repeated his endorsement of Trump, who faces a resurgent new Democratic candidate, Vice-President Kamala Harris, in the November's election. The conversation offered little new information about Trump's views. Over the course of more than two hours, Trump attacked Vice-President Kamala Harris, his Democratic opponent, as a "third-rate phoney candidate" and "more incompetent" than her boss, President Joe Biden. She, along

Musk offered praise as he proved a sympathetic partner to help amplify Trump's views and the leaders of other nations were deliberately sending criminals and "their non-productive people" to America. To all of these points, Musk largely voiced his agreement, helping to amplify Trump's views on a socialmedia platform that once barred him for promoting false claims that promoted political violence. Israeli PM, Defence Min trade barbs over aim of Gaza war

Agencies JERUSALEM

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu traded barbs with his defence minister on Monday, underscoring the deep internal splits that continue to plague the government as the war in Gaza risks spilling out into a wider regional conflict.

Following Israeli media reports quoting Defence Minister Yoav Gallant dismissing Netanyahu's war aim of total victory against the Islamist movement Hamas in Gaza as "nonsense". Netanyahu's office put out a statement rebuking Gallant.

"When Gallant adopts the anti-Israel narrative, he harms the chances of reaching a hostage deal." the statement said

It said Israel's war aim remained "total victory", with the elimination of Hamas and the release of the remaining hostages seized by Hamas-led gunmen on Oct. 7 last year.
